2018 BABICORA MALBEC

Tasting Notes:

As with vintages past, we want Malbec to express its inherent personality while we round out the presentation for balance. Our estate-grown Malbec is long on aromatics and flavor. We blended in small portions of Petit Verdot and Cabernet Sauvignon to our 2018 Babicora Malbec and are thrilled with the results. The buoyant aromatics include hints of sweet cranberry, fresh hops and traces of vanilla. The wine is soft and juicy on the palate with flavors of bright, red fruit and violet petals. The result is an elegant and approachable wine with plenty of personality. Drink now through 2026.
