2019 GLACIER RIDGE CHARDONNAY

Tasting Notes:

Our 2019 Glacier Ridge Chardonnay is a beautiful wine with impeccable balance. Thanks to the growing popularity of our Proprietor's Reserve Chardonnay program, we had more French Oak available for fermentation than in years past. Utilizing once and twice-used French Oak barrels for fermentation and subsequent aging, added some gorgeous depth to this wine. Having the other 82% entirely in stainless steel kept the focus and clean edges you have come to expect. The aromatics are flowery and bright with underlying tones of vanilla and medium toasted French Oak. The palate is juicy and rich yet framed in by fantastic acidity. We are incredibly proud of this wine and are delighted to share it for your enjoyment.
