2014 MUSCAT OF ALEXANDRIA

Tasting Notes:

For better or worse, all wines have personalities. Some are laid back, some are dark and brooding; this wine is really, really happy. The aromatics gleefully leap forth filling your glass with notes of ripe honeydew melon, zesty orange blossom and lemongrass. The flavors on the silky mid-palate harmonize amazingly well with the jubilant nose to keep your senses brimming. This wine shows best slightly chilled and the possibilities for food pairing are limited only by your imagination.
