Tasting Notes:

We are pleased to announce the inaugural vintage of this wine, our interpretation of the classic Chateauneuf du Pape wine of the southern Rhone valley. Lively crimson in color the weight of this wine is apparent from the first pour. The aromatics are unmistakably Rhone; Candied Blackberry, cassis and bramble perfume the glass. Dark ripe cherry and baker's chocolate can be found on the palate and are carried to the finish by elegant tannins that create the framework on which to base this opulent and richly textured wine. This wine is very limited in quantity and may not be available in future vintages.
