2015 PROPRIETOR'S RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Tasting Notes: Our 2015 Proprietor's Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon is a wine of impressive structure and balance. Still very much in its infancy, the nose exhibits notes of blackberry preserve, layered with spicy medium-toasted oak. As the bouquet opens up in the glass, the oak influence recedes, allowing traditional Cabernet Sauvignon aromas of black currant to shine through. There is an alluring density to the aromatics that foretells a great potential for cellaring this vintage. The limestone rich soils of Paso Robles make their presence known in the chalky tannins that build on the mid-palate and shoulder a regal weight. The acid profile is prominent enough to frame in all the youthful exuberance this wine has to offer and carry through to a graceful and composed finish.
